

TULSA

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM
JOHN H. WILLIAMS THEATRE

BIAVA QUARTET September 14 Their uncompromising standards for technique and music-making have garnered Biava Quartet numerous awards, including the Naumburg and the honor of becoming Quartet in Residence at The Juilliard School. This exciting, young foursome will play music by Haydn, Debussy and Mendelssohn, and Barber's "Adagio for Strings."

ACADEMY OF ST. MARTIN IN THE FIELDS CHAMBER ENSEMBLE October 26 This group, drawn from the principal players of the world-famous ASMF orchestra, will perform selections from the repertoires of Brahms, Shostakovich and Mendelssohn.

AMERICAN CHAMBER PLAYERS November 23 Their performances are "intense, passionate and accurate," says the Baltimore Sun. The ACP's concert features an eclectic lineup of music by Haydn, Paul Schoenfield, Frank Bridge and Schubert.

TALICH QUARTET February 15 Representing Czech music throughout Europe, the Americas and the Far East, Talich Quartet is the recipient of many international prizes. The music of Schubert, Kalliwoda and Dvorák will be the focus of the group's program.

TRIO FEDELE March 22 Combining flute, cello and piano, this unique ensemble has been noted for an expansive repertoire. A no less varied program in Tulsa will display the trio's talents with music by Haydn, Beethoven, Weber, Messiaen and Crumb.

SYMPHONIC SAFARI

TROUT FISHING IN AMERICA

TROUT FISHING IN AMERICA September 20 This folk music duo uses an irreverent and plucky sense of humor to appeal to kids and adults alike with playful songs such as "My Hair Had a Party Last Night" and "What I Want is a Proper Cup of Coffee."

RALPH'S WORLD January 24 Ralph's World is a high energy, Chicago-based Indie rock band with a loyal following. Its star, Ralph Covert, has been dubbed "the king of Midwest kids' rock." The show engages children with wry, inventive lyrics about the joys and challenges of being a kid.

TULSA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA "SYMPHONIC SAFARI" March 28 A kid-friendly event featuring Carnival of the Animals, Animal Ditties, Mole Music and other animal-themed classical music, this fun and whimsical concert will teach children about orchestral instruments and musical principles such as timbre, rhythm and pitch.

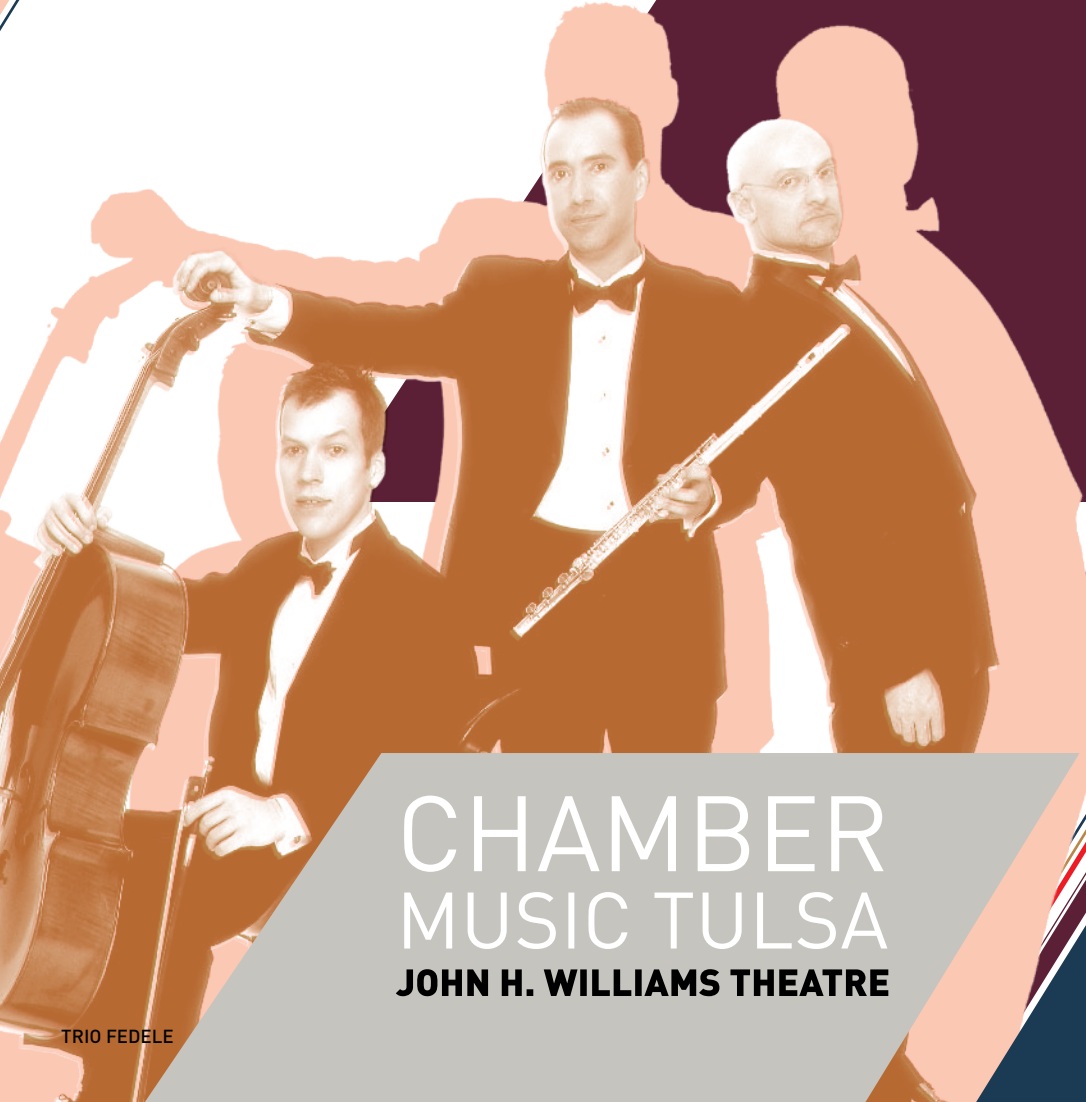

DAVID FINCKEL AND WU HAN

DAVID FINCKEL AND WU HAN January 4 This dynamic husband and wife currently serve as artistic directors of the Chamber Music Society at Lincoln Center. Tulsa patrons will enjoy an extraordinary program when the couple performs the work of Bach, Beethoven, Brahms and Mendelssohn.

SEASON TICKETS: 918.587.3802
SINGLE EVENTS: 918.596.7111 OR
MYTICKETOFFICE.COM

RALPH'S WORLD

TRIO FEDELE

CHAMBER
MUSIC TULSA
JOHN H. WILLIAMS THEATRE

SINGLE EVENTS: 918.596.7111 OR
MYTICKETOFFICE.COM